FALL PLANTINGS FOR SPRING FLOWERS

(FALL, 1924)

THE BULBS. Through the pages of this catalogue we hope you can renew your acquaintance with those colorful spring flowers whose early-season bloom gives so much beauty to the lawn and garden. Many of them too, can be most easily grown within the house during the winter. Particular care has been exercised to list only the choicest varieties in both the older favorites as well as in the very latest introductions. Your bulb orders will be filled with the same superior quality stock that we use here ourselves in growing the thousands of blooms needed for our cut flower trade.

THE HARDY PERENNIALS, TREES AND SHRUBS as listed are sorts particularly suited for fall planting. This stock is grown here in our own nurseries into hardy, thrifty plants.

TIME TO PLANT. All the hardy bulbs must be planted in the fall, any time during October and November, as late as the ground remains open. Your orders will be filled just as soon as the bulbs reach us from abroad. Planting directions are given on the catalogue page devoted to each variety. After freezing weather has set in, cover the bulbs and perennial plantings with straw or leaves several inches deep as a winter protection.

ORDER EARLY. It is impossible to keep every variety of bulb in stock the whole season, and to prevent disappointment, we suggest ORDERING EARLY.

Bulb Fiber The growing of bulbs indoors is a source of great pleasure during the winter months. Bulb Fibre will be found a great aid and a simple way to grow bulbs. It is scientifically prepared, containing several ingredients in the proper proportions best suited to bulb culture. It is clean and odorless and yet contains plant food such as bulbs need. Should be kept moist and treated like soil. Quart, 20 cts.; half peck, 70 cts.; peck, $1.25. Mail or express extra.

SINGLE EARLY TULIPS

OUTDOOR PLANTING. Any good garden soil prepared by spading to a depth of 10 to 12 inches is suitable. Plant the bulbs five inches apart for mass effect and about four inches deep. The bulbs should all be planted at an equal depth if they are desired to bloom at the same time. Raise the bed several inches above the lawn or walk to encourage drainage. Firm the soil well about the bulbs and mulch the beds with leaves or straw before severe cold sets in.

HOUSE CULTURE. Plant six or more bulbs in a pot. Set in a cool dark place for a period of six to ten weeks, to allow roots to develop. They can then be brought into the light for flowering. (Follow same instructions as for Hyacinths.)

NOTE. The approximate height in inches is indicated by a figure, following the variety name.

LATE OR MAY FLOWERING TULIPS

Dream

May flowering tulips include many species and types. The Darwin, Cottage and Breeder types, comprising the principal and most important classes, have relatively the same blooming season, viz.: usually two to three weeks later than the early flowering type.

They are wonderful flowers and make a most gorgeous showing in the garden or border. The large cup-shaped blooms on tall erect stems surpassing in color effect any other flowers. As they come into bloom before the shrubs and other hardy plants are fully leaved out or are in blossom, these tulips are most valuable and desirable.

The Darwins are the best known and the more popular of the late flowering group, with many varieties of intense color. They vary from deep violet-black, purple, crimson and scarlet, salmon, rose pink to the faintest lilac, with innumerable intermediate shades. Our list this year is most complete, with many new and desirable varieties.

NOTE. The approximate height in inches is indicated by the figures following the variety name.

DOUBLE TULIPS

The double tulips are especially desirable for outdoor planting and bedding. The large peony-like blossoms are highly ornamental, coming into bloom a little later than the early varieties of single and before the Darwins. The flowers last a long time and make a grand display when planted in groups or beds.

The same cultural directions apply to double tulips as to the early single varieties.

HOLM & OLSON HYACINTHS

Our Hyacinth bulbs are secured from a specialist in Holland and imported direct. The bulbs are perfectly ripened and cured, insuring maximum results.

INDOOR CULTURE, IN POTS. Growing Hyacinths indoors is a very simple matter. The pleasure derived in watching the rapid development from the time the sprouting starts until the large truss of flowers has fully developed, and the added pleasure of bright cheerful, sweetly perfumed flowers during the dreary winter days, is ample reward for the slight effort.

Use good rich soil. Place some pieces of porous material such as broken flower pots in the bottom so as to insure drainage. Fill in enough soil so as just to cover the top after being well firmed. Use 4- to 5-inch pots for the larger bulbs when planted singly. A number of the small bulbs planted in a $\frac{1}{2}$ or $\frac{3}{4}$ height pot is very satisfactory. After potting they should be thoroughly watered and then placed in a cool, dark place (preferably a vegetable cellar) for a period of six to ten weeks. This develops the roots.

To ascertain the right time to bring into light, tip the pot upside down, tapping gently so as to lift pot off soil. If several of the white roots show it is then safe to bring them into light. Better results are secured by growing them as cool as possible.

OUTDOOR CULTURE. Plant the bulbs uniformly about 6 inches deep. Doing so carefully will insure them blooming evenly. When planting a larger bed, the best plan is to remove about 4 inches of soil, firm bulbs in place about 6 inches apart each way, and cover them firmly.

NARCISSI AND DAFFODILS

The Narcissi are among spring's earliest flowers, and there is no reason why we should not partake of the pleasures they bring with the first warm days of spring. The Narcissi grow in almost any location, doing well in sunny or shady places, and it matters not if wet or dry. They continue to bloom year after year, increasing in size and effectiveness. They are valuable to place in the border of perennials or shrubbery, where they can be left undisturbed, and for naturalizing in the grass. For forcing, treat the same as tulips, planting them in pots. The flowers assume many forms, and present charming combinations of white, gold, orange, sulphur and pure yellow.

Paper White Narcissi Grown in Bowl

Chinese Sacred Lily

CHINESE SACRED LILIES

These are most easy bulbs to grow indoors. They may be planted in soil, but are preferably grown in bowls of water, with pebbles to hold them upright. Each bulb sends up from four to ten stems, producing great clusters of large wax-like blossoms, with yellow centers, and which are very fragrant. Some blooms are single, others double, but all equally beautiful. Mammoth sized bulbs, 20 cts. each; $2.00 per dozen.

Add 20c for postage if to be sent by mail.

LILIES

These should be potted firmly in good rich soil and placed in a cellar or cool dark place until the roots show when the soil is tipped out of pot. They may then be placed in a warm light place when they will start and continue to grow until bloom.

Scilla Siberica. Bright blue star-shaped flowers produced very freely. 50 cts. per dozen; $3.50 per 100.

Snowdrops. These popular little white flowers come peeping out of the ground just as soon as the snow is gone. Largest bulbs, 35 cts. per dozen; $2.50 per 100.

FREESIAS

These dainty, spicy, sweet-scented blossoms can easily be had in bloom at Christmas if planted early. They are only suited for pot culture as they are not hardy. Plant a number of bulbs to the pot and keep in a cool place such as a vegetable cellar until the roots show through the soil when tipped out of pot. After bringing into light, they should be kept in as low a temperature as possible to get best results.

Purity. Pure white. Giant bulbs. 90 cts per dozen; large bulbs, 50 cts. per dozen. Parcel Post, free.

Rainbow Freesias. Yellow, pink, blue, lavender, etc. $1.00 per dozen; $8.00 per 100. Parcel Post free.

CROCUS

These bright, cheerful flowers are earliest of all to bloom. They are often in bloom before the snow has gone. A few dotted about in clusters in the lawn is a most pleasing view from indoors.

The colors come in bright golden yellows, deep blue to light blue, striped and pure white.

Plant them anywhere. The simplest way is to take sharp trowel and raise sod enough to drop bulb in place. Do not plant too deep, one inch, not to exceed two inches is best.

H. & O. Mixed Crocus. 25 cts. per dozen; $1.75 per 100; $16.50 per 1,000.

EXTRA LARGE NAMED VARIETIES

PERENNIALS—Hardy Garden Flowers

The PERENNIALS are those plants whose roots, persisting over winter, produce new foliage and flowers the succeeding year. Plants of this type with a tendency to be permanent in character have great value and use in the home yard gardens. Plant them in beds, in borders or in the foreground of shrubbery groups. Such varieties as are listed here are selections of the hardiest sorts and can be advantageously planted in the fall—preferably early fall. After the ground has frozen a covering of straw or hay, several inches deep, should be spread over the new plantings as a winter protection.

PRICES—Unless otherwise noted, 1 yr., 30 cts. each; $3.00 per doz. Strong 2 yr. plants 40 cts. each; $4.00 per doz.

Plants priced at 35 cts. each, are $3.50 per doz.; 40 cts. each, $4.00 per doz.; 50 cts. each, $5.00 per doz.

NOTE—Our perennial stock is of the best quality and we take special care in digging and packing orders. Because of the perishable nature of such material we cannot assume any responsibility as to the future outcome of any plantings. All orders are accepted on these conditions.

For complete lists of plants and full descriptions, see our large catalogue "CREATING YOUR LANDSCAPE"—sent on request.

Here, under our Northern conditions, it is peer of all flowers in combining so well the qualities of absolute hardiness, great color variation, size, beauty and fragrance of bloom.

Planting. The roots should be set with the "eyes," 2 to 3 inches below the surface and the soil tightly packed about them. Allow a spacing of about 3 feet between the plants.

The soil should be of good substance and the location free of tree roots and dense shade. Bone meal is preferred as a fertilizer. A light covering of straw, after the ground has frozen is desirable.

NOTE: The figures directly following the variety name denote the comparative rating given by votes of the American Peony Society in 1921. The valuation is on a scale of 10 as the perfect score. Any variety given a rating of 7.0 and over can be considered as highly desirable. We list only those sorts suitable to our northern conditions and that have proven their value as producers under ordinary garden culture.

Quality. The "roots" are substantial plants with 3 to 5 strong eyes. The "clumps" vary in size but are the 2 to 4 year old stock. These older plants are desirable when immediate flowering results are wanted. CREATING YOUR LANDSCAPE—copy sent

Hardy Iris—"Parisiana"

HARDY IRIS (Fleur-de-Lis)

FOR FALL PLANTING

Iris is so generally considered as one of the most beautiful of perennial plants as to rightly deserve its common name—"The Hardy Garden Orchid." The brilliant flowers, held erect on tall, stiff stems arising from the clump of sword-shaped leaves, make the Iris a highly prized flower-garden subject. For cutting use, as house and table decorations, the Fleur-de-Lis is greatly desirable. Stalks of flowers, cut when in bud, often last a week indoors.

PLANTING. Early to late fall is the ideal planting season for Iris. Set the roots only deep enough to have them covered with soil and avoid any fresh manure as a fertilizer. A mulch of hay or straw spread over the new plantings after the ground has frozen is a good winter protection. Plants set early this fall usually give bloom the following spring. Almost any situation with good sunlight and fair soil will prove satisfactory for planting.

PRICES. The 1-year plants are strong, thrifty roots; the 2-year stock is heavier and will produce results more quickly.

Quantity Rate. For lots of a dozen or more of one variety use the price of ten. Example: Plants at 30 cts. each are $3.00 per dozen.

NOTE: In the descriptions "S" or "Standards" refer to the three upright petals. The letter "F" or "Falls" refers to the three drooping or lower petals.
